RECEIVED
FEB 07 2000
EIS001203

Judith Baron

Wendy R. Dixon
EIS Project Manager M/S 010
USDOE
North Las Vegas, NV

1 Feb. 2000

Dear Ms. Dixon:

Re: Draft Environmental Impact Statement for a Geologic Repository for Disposal of Spent Nuclear Fuel & High-Level Radioactive Waste

1 From what I know about Yucca Mountain, the land is relatively stable. If the fuel rods etc. can be ceramicized, there is little probability of danger to either populations or and the water table. This waste should stored there; the danger to populations is becoming more grave with this debris in its present state.

Judith Baron
1900 Northland Ave
Highland Park, IL
60035-2733