17 MS. POWELL: My name's Dana Powell. I'm 18 speaking as a resident of the city of Atlanta and 19 a member of WAND, Women's Action for New 20 Directions. I just want to submit a very brief 21 statement, on behalf of myself and also of two 22 others, to go on the record tonight. Thank you
23 for the opportunity to do that. | For the record,
1 24 Amy Ray and Emily Saliers of the Indigo Girls, as 25 well as myself, as residents of the state of

2 Georgia are opposed to the proposed establishment 3 of the Yucca Mountain repository as set forth in 4 Senate Bill 1287. We are specifically concerned 5 about the transportation of 30 million tons of 6 nuclear waste through our communities and through 7 the communities of others across the country. | And 8 we'll be submitting written statements to the 9 Department of Energy detailing this opposition,
10 and we encourage everyone else that's here tonight
11 in opposition to do the same. Thank you.

12 MR. LAWSON: I'd like to call Stacy Singer and Bob Fulkerson.
